

Music for Change
presents
the launch of

A SINGING HISTORY of KENT

Join us on a lively singing
journey through the County,
followed by a
lovely cream tea.

Songs presented by four leading Kent folk artistes
from the Kent Song Collective:

Bob Kenward
Sue Hudson
Stuart Pendrill
Sue Watson

The Singing History
of Kent songbook
brings to life
the history and traditions of the county and its people. Informative
and easy to use,
the book is a useful
resource for schools,
community groups
and libraries. Copies will be distributed free at the event.

Friday 18th September 11am - 12:30pm

Deal Library, Broad Street, Deal, Kent CT14 6ER

For more information or to book places for your school at the launch, contact: julie@musicforchange.org, or telephone 01227459243

